Did you know that the first bachelor’s degree given to a woman in engineering at Illinois was in Agricultural Engineering in 1909 to Louise J. Pellens?

The Women in Engineering (WIE) program is dedicated to providing a welcoming and supportive environment for women students in the College of Engineering. The wide range of WIE programs include student recruiting, workshops and seminars, undergraduate advising, and a camp for middle school girls.

Contact Us

Women In Engineering
1308 West Green Street
210A Engineering Hall; MC-272
Urbana, IL 61801

Phone: (217) 244-3817
Fax: (217) 244-4974
Email: wie@illinois.edu

Prof Susan M Larson: smlarson@illinois.edu
Angie Wolters: wolters4@illinois.edu
Brooke Newell: bsnewell@illinois.edu