Final Exam Information

The Final Exam will be held at a date/time TBA.

- The final exam is combined and cumulative.
- You will have 3 hours to solve the final exam.
- Bring your student ID both for identification and because you MUST know your UIN which is printed there. You should also know your NetID as well as which discussion section you are registered for.
- Any student who fails to show proper ID, fails to know their UIN, or incorrectly records their UIN on the exam, will receive a grade of zero on the exam.
- Room assignments will be posted by Monday, April 23. You must sit in your assigned room/building.

Conflict Final Exam

If you have a conflict with the Final Exam time, please consult university policy on final exams. Based on that, if you qualify to take the final conflict exam, you must submit a properly formatted Conflict Request Form, no later than Friday, April 27 at 6:59pm. Your professor reserves final judgment as to which final exam you will take. The Conflict Final Exam will be held at a date/time TBA. As with the regular exam times, arrive early with your photo ID. Any student that shows up to take the conflict final exam, without having registered, will be considered to have had an unexcused final examination absence and will be handled as dictated in the UIUC Examination Policy.

To request to register for the conflict final exam, complete the CONFLICT FINAL EXAM REQUEST FORM as soon as possible, but no later than Friday, April 27 at 6:59pm. (A conflict exam request for any of the other exams must be submitted separately and in accordance with those criteria found on this course webpage.)

If your request for a conflict exam is approved:

- Course staff will email your "@illinois.edu" email account to confirm your registration by 5 pm on Monday, April 30. This email will come from staff-math241sp18@illinois.edu.
- The conflict exam will be held at a date/time TBA. Location will be announced in your confirmation email.
- Once you have registered for the Conflict Final Exam, you are required to take the Conflict Final Exam. Failure to do so will be considered an unexcused missed Final Exam, and will be handled as dictated in the UIUC Examination Policy.

After completing a conflict registration request form, if you are unable to attend the conflict exam time as well, course staff (email address: staff-math241sp18@illinois.edu) will be in contact with you via your "@illinois.edu" email account. Failure to respond promptly and appropriately to this email will result in you receiving a zero on that exam.

Basic information

- The exam covers all material from all lectures on the schedule, all worksheets, all quizzes, and all webassign homework.
- You are responsible for all topics covered in homework, lectures, and discussion section worksheets and quizzes.
- You are responsible for all topics in the text which have been mentioned in class.
- See the schedule of topics covered, along with links to worksheets, quizzes, online webassign homeworks, announcements and so on, at the course website.
- You will need to know the name of your T.A. and which section you are registered for.
- The exam will be a mixture of free-response, multiple-choice and True/False questions. For free-response questions, you must show work that justifies your answer. In those problems, no credit will be given for correct answers without proper justification.
- No notes or extra papers are allowed.
- No phones, calculators, iPods or electronic devices of any kind are allowed for ANY reason, including checking the time. You may use a simple wristwatch.
- Any act of academic dishonesty (e.g. looking at a cell phone or another student's paper) will be dealt with under the student code of conduct.
